Family and Friends Corner

On behalf of our University Police Department, welcome to the Cal Poly Pomona family. As the Chief of Police, student safety and security on campus is my top priority.

Our department includes trained professional police officers, civilian staff and auxiliary personnel working 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Our peace officers handle crime reports and investigations on campus, as well as give presentations on crime prevention and self-defense workshops. In addition, we have a team of Community Service Officers who provide additional coverage in the residential areas of campus. Read more...
