SEXUAL BATTERY

At 8:25am on Tuesday, October 13, a sexual battery occurred on campus. The victim was walking on the sidewalk adjacent to the Cal Poly Pomona Athletic Fields near the tennis courts. The suspect approached the victim and attempted to engage in conversation, and grabbed the victim's breast. The suspect left the area on foot and was last seen running toward Lot K.

Suspect Description:

Male, white, early 20's, with medium length brown hair, wavy at the ends; Wearing an oversized, navy-colored jacket, blue jeans, and carrying a backpack—no further description.

Members of the campus community are reminded to be aware of their surroundings, travel with others when practical, and notify University Police immediately of any suspicious persons or situations. Use any Code Blue callbox or if using a cell phone, dial University Police Dispatch directly by calling (909) 869-3070 (cell phone 9-1-1 calls are routed to the California Highway Patrol).
